Jerome County requires a Building Permit before ANY construction can begin.

Double Fees may be levied whenever construction has begun prior to obtaining a building permit.

Prior to obtaining a building permit, you should determine whether your project meets appropriate zoning requirements and whether there are any floodplains or other engineering restrictions.

All Building Permits require a Zoning Permit (Application included) to be reviewed and approved by the Zoning Administrator. Zoning must be approved before your application will move to the Building Department for review.

Zoning Requirements:

1. Structures under 200 square feet may require a Zoning Permit, but not a Building Permit unless the structure is attached to an existing building, then a Building Permit will be required.
2. Structures over 200 square feet will require a Building Permit.
3. Agricultural buildings will require a Zoning Permit and an AG Siting Permit only.
4. Fire Department letter, if the project is over 150 feet from the main road. An access road to Jerome County Fire Department requirements shall be installed prior to construction.
